PARTNERS IN THE WORK OF PEACEMAKING

October 4 - 6, 2008 in Washington, DC
November 11 - 12, 2008 in San Diego, CA

The conference, "Partners in the Work of Peacemaking," was arranged to bring together like-minded clergy and individuals of different regions and faith traditions, who are actively involved in a variety of interfaith efforts, in order to strengthen the ties that already bind us, broaden our understanding of the others' faith and cultures, as well as to share ways in which we can all make positive contributions in today's world.

Participants: Clergy and Individuals involved in interfaith work

Goals:

- To facilitate mutual understanding between Americans and the Muslim World
- To develop mutual appreciation for other cultures and religions
- To discuss contributions that "People of Faith" can make today

Content:

- Discuss scriptural / theological mandates and principles from our religious traditions that call us to be peacemakers
- Explore some of the hindrances towards peace and peacemaking
- Identify and explore some practical ways in our environments that we can work towards peace
- Learn about the importance of prayer/supplication from each religious tradition

Included in Program Cost:

- registration fee
- ground transportation during 2-day conference
- Saturday evening reception (welcome participants)
- lodging Saturday and Sunday night
- breakfast and lunch on Sunday and Monday
