Better Understanding for a Better World
(BUBW International) Conferences
(Leadership, Multi-Cultural and Interfaith Program)

OVERVIEW

Better Understanding for a Better World (BUBW) was launched in 2006 to give American high school students and international exchange students of diverse cultural backgrounds and various faith traditions the opportunity to meet each other. The most pressing issue our youth face today is how they view the “other”, meaning people who are different from them. Through leadership development, multicultural training, and interfaith dialogue, BUBW aims to breakdown the stereotypes and the barriers that lead to fear or hate of the “other”.

Goals

- Emphasize world-wide citizenship and cultural competency development
- Focus on leadership development and being ambassadors of good will, reconciliation and justice
- Encourage civic engagement among program participants

VISION

A world of multi-cultural / religious understanding and cooperation

MISSION

To provide multi-cultural, young professional-oriented, leadership and interfaith programs for life transforming opportunities
