

Civilizations Exchange & Cooperation Foundation

Southern Spain

ISLAM: DISTINGUISHING RELIGION FROM CULTURE THROUGH THE LENS OF CHRISTIANITY

LOYOLA
UNIVERSITY MARYLAND

Loyola University Maryland

May 29 – June 7, 2021 (tbc)

Students and Non-Students Welcome!

Andalusia - Southern Spain

Mosque of Cordoba

Al Hambra Palace - Granada

Andalusian Markets of Granada

Flamenco Dance

Spanish Cuisine

- Learn about the history of Islamic Civilization in Europe, Islamic Art, geometric design and architecture in Spain
- Experience prayer, culture and daily life
- Identify cultural practices from religious practices
- Deepen ones' understanding of both Christian and Islamic practices, as well as cultural traditions that exist within the society
- Briefing & Reception with Cultural Attaché - U.S. Embassy in Madrid

Islam: Distinguishing Religion from Culture Through The Lens of Christianity

great for students interested in religious studies, international studies, cross-cultural and international relations programs

Rolling Admission. DEADLINE to confirm participation: March 15, 2021.

PROGRAM FEE: $2,795

(Includes round-trip airfare, lodging, breakfast and lunch or dinner daily, reception, transportation in Spain, historic site admission fees, as well as group activities and excursions)

For more information and registration contact:

Rev. Bao Nguyen, S.J., PhD
Loyola University of Maryland
410-617-2910 Ext. 7088
bqnguyen@loyola.edu

Program will be conducted in collaboration with:

Imam M. Bashar Arafat, President
Civilizations Exchange & Cooperation Foundation
410-944-6077
info@cecf-net.org